

PSYCHOLOGY (General & Subsidiary)

Time – 3 Hours.

Full Marks. – 75

B. A. Part-II Examination shall carry 100 marks, split up into one theory paper of 75 marks and one practical for 25 marks. The theory examination shall be held for 3 hours, and the practical examination for 6 hours.

Abnormal Psychology

One question to be set from each chapter, out of which questions are to be answered.

1. Distinction between normal and abnormal, different views about abnormality.
2. Topographical aspects of mind-nature and proofs of unconscious.
3. Dynamic aspects of mind-Id. Ego & super ego.
4. Psychosexual development.
5. Psychopathology of everyday life and mental mechanism--Repression, sublimation, projection and rationalization.
6. Dreams : Mechanism and wishfulfilment theory of dreams.
7. Difference between neuroses and psychoses, diseases-symptoms & etiology of Hysteria, obsessive compulsive neurosis.
8. Psychoses : Symptoms and etiology of paranoia and Manic depressive psychoses.
9. Mental Retardation : Clinical types and causes.
10. Psychotherapy : Meaning and aims of psychoanalysis.

Help Book : University Passport to Abnormal Psychology.

PRACTICAL

Time – 6 Hours.

Full Marks. – 25

The distribution of marks shall be as follows

- | | |
|------------------------------|----------|
| 1. Statistics ... | 10 Marks |
| 2. Testing ... | 10 Marks |
| 3. Note-book & Viva voce ... | 5 Marks |

Students will be required to attempt one question out of two to be set in statistics.

Statistics- 10 Marks

Preparation of frequency table, frequency polygon and histogram, Mean, Median AD and S. D.

Testing- 10 Marks

Students will be required to administer and one test out of any two set in the examination from the following :

(1) Passalong (2) Block-Design and (3) Cube Construction.

Help Book : University Passport to Experimental Psychology.